Dear Don Stanley,

Thanks for the copy of your newest literary quarterly.

I've skimmed it to see if you'd received the newest and an excellent JFK assassination book.

It appears that you haven't.

It is Presumed Guilty, by Howard Roffman, published by Fairleigh Dickinson University Press, Cranbury, N.J.

They do not seem to be anxious to sell the book.

In fact, despite the heavy proportion of cost represented by makeready, they didn't print enough copies to make anything, 2000.

I don't know if any book stores out there have this book in stock, but I do think it is worth your attention.

Pretty fair story on David Belin in it, too.

Thanks and best,

Harold Weisberg

P.S. I expect to have a new one before too long.
